PROGRAM:

Well, in case you did not know it by now, our October meeting will be the Broadcasters Clinic online event this year and I encourage all of you to register and participate. If you need more information, visit www.wi-broadcasters.org. The SBE meeting will be held on Wednesday evening October 14th at 7:00 PM. Be sure to log into the live stream for the business meeting and to hear a presentation by Gary Trenda on sporting event frequency coordination.

Chairman's Corner:

A couple of items of interest from our National SBE office:

1. The SBE Annual Membership Meeting and National Awards Presentation, broadcast over the SBE You Tube Channel, is available for viewing. The program includes a surprise presentation of the SBE Lifetime Achievement Award, recognition of the winners of SBE's major awards and the two members elevated to the member rank of Fellow. Click on the link found at the SBE website home page.
2. There are two new SBE webinars coming up in October.
 - a. AoIP Module 8: Trouble Shooting IP Systems is Oct. 15. Join us for Trouble Shooting IP Systems as Edwin Bukont, M.Sc., CTS, CSRE, E2 Technical Services & Solutions and Shane Toven, CSRE, CBNT, senior broadcast engineer, Educational Media Foundation, discuss the advances in modern packet-switched networks or IP Networks.
 - b. Virtualization: How It Applies to Your Infrastructure is Oct. 29. Join Erik Sheldon, Sr., systems administrator, Hope Media Group in Houston, Texas, as he describes virtualization and how you can choose what's right for you in your infrastructure. He will review what products are available and how to decide the level for your needs.

Bill Hubbard, CPBE
Chapter 80 Chair
